

Ethos Shower Head

Ethos: the philosophy of exciting innovation for the bathroom. Awaken your senses by being showered with light – from an integrated LED fitted inside the Ethos shower head, completely engulfing you into a world of coloured water. The stunning lighting effect will pick you up even on the darkest of days to enhance your positivity and wellbeing.

The spectrum of colours are operated by a stylish, compact wall mounted control finished in chrome. The fantastic colours can rotate or pause dependant on your mood.
